Robert Moses' Kin

May 10 at 8:00pm

Dougherty Valley Performing Arts Center

"Robert Moses' choreography not only moves you, it makes you want to move." - SF Gate

Founded in 1995, Robert Moses' dance company Kin is identified as one of the most important arts entities in the San Francisco Bay Area and Northern California because of its contributions to the field of live performance excellence, and its attention to provoking and meaningful themes. Robert Moses is known for creating nuanced, athletic and powerful choreography while addressing charged cultural and social issues such as hate, faith, race and gender dynamics. The company performances are combination of athletic techniques, rhythmic complexities and gestural details. They are a fusion of different styles and genres like jazz, light hip-hop, gospel music and balletic movements.
