Eddie Money first made a mark in the Rock and Roll world with his 1977 eponymous debut album, buoyed by the success of two of his most famous hits, "Baby Hold On" and "Two Tickets to Paradise". Along with having sold more than 28 million records, Money followed the success of his first album with a stream of Top 40 hits, as well as some of the era's most creative videos for songs like "Think I'm in Love" and "Shakin." In 1986, Money released Can't Hold Back, which featured the chart-topping, Grammy-Nominated duet with Ronnie Spector, "Take Me Home Tonight" and the hit "I Wanna Go Back." His popularity has carried over to film, TV and video games, with his tunes appearing in dozens of movies, television shows, and hit video games like "Grand Theft Auto" and "Guitar Hero."

STEVE SESKIN & FRIENDS THE SONGWRITERS SING

Saturday, March 16, 2013 at 8:00pm

Dougherty Valley Performing Arts Center

Meet the songwriters who write your favorite music. Steve Seskin and fellow songwriters will sing and share their experiences writing some of the world's most popular songs. Steve Seskin is an American songwriter whose compositions have been recorded by Alabama, Kenny Chesney, Peter Dinklage, Peter Frampton, Waylon Jennings, Brian McComas, Neal McCoy, Tim McGraw, John Michael Montgomery, Colin Raye, Tebey and Mark Wills. The debut single from McGraw's Set This Circus Down, "Grown Men Don't Cry", was nominated for a 2002 Grammy award and also garnered the #1 position on the Billboard Country Single Chart in June, 2005. While Steve is best known for writing hits, he is also a successful performer and recording artist.

"Don't Laugh at Me" which was recorded by Peter, Paul and Mary, became the impetus for the Operation Respect/Don't Laugh at Me project, a curriculum designed to teach tolerance in schools.

All proceeds from this show benefit the San Ramon Arts Foundation who supports arts programs in the City of San Ramon and the San Ramon Valley Unified School District.
