Date/Time of Incident: February 20, 2012 at 2350 hours

Location of Incident: Durango Lane, San Ramon

Suspect Name/DOB: Aaron Ricks, 08-13-1984

Incident Synopsis:

Officers responded to an address on Durango Lane for the report of an elderly female who was yelling for help and bleeding badly. Information was provided that the women's son, Aaron Ricks was responsible for assaulting her. It was reported that Ricks was still in the area.

Officers arrived and contacted Ricks who was standing on his porch armed with a baseball bat. Officers were able to disarm Rick's using a less lethal projectile and took him into custody.

The injured woman received medical treatment for her significant injuries caused by several strikes to the head and body from the baseball bat. She was transported to John Muir Medical Center for treatment.

Officers developed probable cause for the arrest of Ricks for attempted murder.

Ricks was booked at the Martinez Detention Facility for PC 664-187.
