Subject: Missing Elderly Adult – Luba Lusherovich

Earlier this afternoon, San Ramon Police Officers responded to a report of a missing elderly female. Family members of Luba Lusherovich reported she walked away from their home on Fountainhead Drive, in the City of San Ramon. After several hours of searching, Luba's family members contacted the San Ramon Police Department for assistance.

Luba is 77 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighs approximately 150 pounds and has light brown hair and brown eyes. She was last seen just after 12:00 when she left the residence on foot. Luba does not have access to a vehicle, speaks with a heavy Russian accent and speaks limited English. Luba also suffers from dementia and does not have her medication. She was last seen wearing a dark colored shirt, unknown colored pants and dark colored low heel shoes. She also left without her glasses and is not wearing the glasses shown in the attached picture.

San Ramon Police Personnel as well as members of the Contra Costa County Office of the Sheriff Search and Rescue Team are actively searching for Luba.

Attached to this press release is a recent photo of Luba, which was provided by her family members. There is also a digital file of the image included in the press release email.

Please contact the San Ramon Police Department at 925-973-2779 if you have any seen Luba recently or have any information regarding her whereabouts.
