Dougherty Valley Performing Arts Center

Foghat's live performance is as intense as ever with the incredible energy and musicianship that one would expect and hope for from a seasoned band with such a long musical history. Foghat's thunderous blend of blues, boogie and rock 'n' roll are shaking walls and fans everywhere. Foghat fans are everywhere and these days their audience consists of all ages. From the young kids who play Guitar Hero III and know all of the lyrics to 'Slow Ride', to the dazed & confused generation of 30-40 somethings and the 'boomers' who bought Foghat's first vinyl or 8 track! Looking out at the audience and seeing all of the generations rockin' to Foghat is very gratifying to the band. According to lead singer Charlie Huhn, "the band just wants to make sure that after every show, they are all convinced that they just got rocked, from the second we start the first song to the end of the show".

THE UNDERWATER BUBBLE SHOW

March 15, 2020 at 4:00pm

Dougherty Valley Performing Arts Center

Life can be gray or colorful - this time it is going to be very colorful! After another long day full of meetings and deadlines, Mr. B finds himself transported to a magical world that's inhabited by seahorses, dragon fish, starfish, mermaids, clown fish and more. They carry Mr. B along his imaginary journey in this beautiful underwater world where fantasy becomes reality and you are invited to follow him. Taking cues from Cirque du Soleil, the visually spectacular show incorporates the latest in stage technology combining dancers, acrobats, lasers, snow cannons, soap bubble tornadoes, theatrical fog, gigantic smoke rings, smoke-filled soap bubble machines, optical illusions and many other surprises. Lasers, low ground smoke and flying foam simulate waves and the underwater atmosphere. A juggler in a huge plastic ball is the performer that immediately attracts Mr. B and the audience into Bubblelandia's wondrous world, while dancers and acrobats serve as small colorful fish chasing Mr. B and each other inside the aquarium. The main character is played by a skillful actor/mime exaggerating his gradual transformation from stressed out modernity to blissed out wonder, transporting the audience into this parallel universe of joy and freedom.

JAKE SHIMABUKURO

April 5, 2020 at 7:00pm

Dougherty Valley Performing Arts Center

Shimabukuro's wholly unique approach to the ukulele started early. As a youngster growing up in Honolulu, Hawaii, Shimabukuro started playing the instrument at the age of four, learning the basics from his mother, Carol, and then developing his craft further by studying the likes of musical masters such as Eddie Kamae, Ohta-San and Peter Moon. As he matured, Shimabukuro also found inspiration from guitar players, drummers, pianists, and singers. Even athletes helped fuel the intensity of his artistic fire. Since his touring career began with a viral ukulele rendition of "While My Guitar Gently Weeps" on YouTube, Jake Shimabukuro has been continuously entertaining audiences with his wholly unique instrumental music. The 12 tracks that comprise his latest album, The Greatest Day, feature some of Shimabukuro's most imaginative and adventuresome playing yet, with original material and reinvented versions of hits like The Beatles' "Eleanor Rigby," Ed Sheeran's "Shape of You" and Jimi Hendrix's "If 6 Was 9." Along with his tremendous professional achievements, Shimabukuro's personal life is filled with riches. He's a loving husband and proud father of two boys. While balancing career with family, he also remains firmly rooted in his commitment to community, frequently performing at schools in Hawaii and overseas, urging youngsters to find their passion and live drug-free.

Sat. May 16, 2020 at 2pm and 5pm
Sun. May 17, 2020 at 2pm

One of the most explosive movie musicals in recent memory bursts onto the stage with exhilarating results. When Ren and his mother move from Chicago to a small farming town, Ren is prepared for the inevitable adjustment period at his new school. What he isn't prepared for are the rigorous local edicts, including a ban on dancing instituted by the local preacher, determined to exercise the control over the town's youth. When the reverend's rebellious daughter sets her sights on Ren, her roughneck boyfriend tries to sabotage Ren's reputation, with many of the locals eager to believe the worst about the new kid. The heartfelt story that emerges is of a father longing for the son he lost and of a young man aching for the father who walked out on him. Footloose celebrates the wisdom of listening to young people, guiding them with a warm heart and an open mind.
